What is the Whatcom Art Guild?

The Whatcom Art Guild is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization that has been nurturing visual arts within the community for more than 50 years. There are no paid positions in this organization. The guild operates entirely through the volunteer work of its members. Contributions are 100% tax deductible.

The Purpose of Whatcom Art Guild

- ☞ to encourage and promote the visual arts in the Whatcom County area
- ☞ to provide an environment in which artists of all levels can meet and exchange ideas and information
- ☞ to organize exhibits in which members may display and sell artworks
- ☞ to establish ties within the county that promote the visual arts
- ☞ to support lifelong art education
- ☞ to promote member artists and the Whatcom Art Guild

Sponsored Community Events

The Guild sponsors events throughout the year, which enriches and stimulates interest in the visual arts in the community and supports the local cultural community and artist members.

- ☞ Collective shows featuring member artists
- ☞ Opportunity to participate in the Art Market in Fairhaven - www.whatcomartmarket.org

Promoting the Arts Through Community Service

Each year the Guild engages in several specific community projects to promote and support art education in our community, including:

HIGHER EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIPS

The Guild annually awards scholarships to two art students, one from Western Washington University and one from Whatcom Community College.

SAINT JOE'S KIDS PROJECT

Age-appropriate art supplies are donated each year to the Pediatric Ward at Saint Joseph Hospital.
