

Welcome to 2016

As the Board positions changes hands I wish to applaud the 2015 Board, guided by President Michael White, for their service to the WAG and its Members. With less than a year as a new WAG Member, I realize that they will prove to be a valuable resource to all of the 2016 Board Members.

Every year this time I feel compelled to create a New Year's resolution list, although I can't remember the last time I actually did so. It seems so senseless. However, this year is different.

As your newly elected President, I couldn't help but assign myself a few essential goals to meet concerning the WAG during my tenure. I'll treat these goals much like I treated my wishes whenever I blew out candles on my birthday cake; I'll keep them to myself, so as not to jinx things. However, I will predict that 2016 will be a year of CHANGE for the WAG.

After a disappointing Spring Show, it was apparent that we needed to make some changes. So, in place of our Fall Show, a caucus of old and new Board Members, led by Pat Fisher, met numerous times to Strategically Plan the future of the WAG. In short, we identified our weak and strong areas, and devised a plan for a more exciting and professional WAG. Some changes will be noticed immediately beginning with our first General Meeting of 2016 as we try to achieve a stronger attendance. Additional improvements will be made in the quality and quantity of VENUES made available to WAG members, along with more ACTIVITIES for members in the way of tours, workshops, and guest speakers. More money raising events are planned to help build our budget. To lighten the demands of the treasurer, and to ensure financial propriety for both the WAG and WAM, we have hired a professional accountant. These are just a few of the changes which you as members can look forward to in the next 12 months.

Thank you for your confidence and support of the 2016 Board as we begin a new year serving the WAG.

Susan Snow Viodelts has recently sold a painting to the Federation of Russia, New Jersey, North Carolina, New York, California and locally! She has her art displayed at the Via Bistro in Birch Bay, Bellewood Acres, Earth-Craftys in New York, & the Goff Building. Susan has also sold prints to the UK, France and Scotland!

Susan has her Raven Collection on display at the Colophon Café for the month of January. Please go by for a cup of coffee or a delicious lunch and enjoy her art displayed on the stone wall.

It is called "Night Watch", acrylic, 24 x 48.

Venues

Judd and Rebecca Greenwood have their photographs on display downstairs at Village Books during the month of January. Stop by to have a look when you're there to browse for books, have lunch, or join a book review.

WAG has the opportunity to show at the Colophon Café. This month will feature the wonderful watercolor paintings of our members, Beth Roberson and Celia Clarke. Please go by for a cup of coffee or a delicious lunch, and thank the Cafe for supporting our group and our art. The Colophon website is: www.colophoncafe.com/artwall.

Watercolor by Carol McMillan

The buildings at the Bellewether have been an ongoing venue for many of our WAG artists over the past few years. This venue may be changing in the future with new ownership, but we have greatly appreciated having the opportunity to display our artwork in this prestigious location!

Now Showing thru February at the Bellewood Gallery

Whatcom Art Guild displays creations by thirty-six of our artists. We have a wonderful variety of paintings, jewelry, fused glass, mosaics, soft sculptures and more!

BelleWood Acres is located on the Guide Meridian between Bellingham and Lynden. It's the big red barn jut after the Hemmi Road. The Art Gallery is on the second floor.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON SKETCHING ANYONE?

Do you have any interest in sketching or painting around town on one of the following Saturday afternoons from 2:00 – 4:00?

February 13, March 12, April 9?

We would meet somewhere like the Sea Breeze Café near the Marina, buy a cup of coffee and sketch and paint. If it is a lovely day, we could go outside for a bit to look at the boats and the kites.

If you have any interest in doing this, please contact me at: celiaanneclarke@outlook.com

Thanks for listening! Celia
