Artists & Art Lovers encouraging & promoting the visual arts
in Whatcom County
since 1964

What is the Whatcom Art Guild?

The Whatcom Art Guild is a non-profit 509(a)2 organization that has been nurturing visual arts within the community for more than 40 years. There are no paid positions in this organization. The guild operates entirely through the volunteer work of its members. Contributions are 100% tax deductible.

The Purpose of Whatcom Art Guild is to

- Encourage and promote the visual arts within Whatcom County
- Provide an environment in which artists can meet and exchange ideas and information
- Organize exhibits in which members may display and sell artworks
- Establish ties within the county and promote the visual arts
- Support lifelong art education
- Promote member artists and the Whatcom Art Guild

Sponsored Community Events

The Guild sponsors events throughout the year, which enriches and stimulates interest in the visual arts in the community and supports the local cultural community and artist members.

- Ski-to-Sea Art by the Lake Exhibition
- Fall Arts & Crafts Art by the Lake Show & Sale
- Spring & fall members shows at the Ferndale Public Library

Promoting the Arts Through Community Service

Each year the Guild engages in several specific community projects to promote and support art education in our community, including:

HIGHER EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIPS

The Guild annually awards scholarships to two art students, one from Western Washington University and one from Whatcom Community College.

NORTHWEST WASHINGTON FAIR

The Guild issues commendation certificates and monetary awards to children, teens and seniors for their outstanding artwork exhibited at the fair.

SAINT JOE'S KIDS PROJECT

Age-appropriate art supplies are donated each year to the Pediatric Ward at Saint Joseph Hospital.
